

General Disclaimer

Confidentiality

The information contained in this document remains confidential as between the Australian Institute of Landscape Architects (AILA), the Consultant and the Client.

Accuracy & reliability of information

While the Consultant has taken all care and responsibility in producing the information in this document, the Consultant makes no representations in respect of, and, to the extent permitted by law, excludes all warranties in relation to, the accuracy or completeness of the information. The Consultant, its officers, employees, directors and contractors exclude all liability whatsoever for any loss or damage, howsoever, arising out of reliance, in whole or in part, on the information.

Exclusion of liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, the Consultant, nor any of its agents or subcontractors, directors, officers or employees shall be liable for any direct, indirect, special, incidental, consequential, punitive, or exemplary damages, including lost profits (even if the Consultant is advised of the possibility thereof) arising in any way from, including but not limited to:

- (i) the information contained in this document (or due to any inaccuracy error or omission in such information); or
- (ii) any other written or oral communication in respect of the historical or intended business dealings between the Consultant and the Client.

Notwithstanding the above, the Consultant's maximum liability to the Client is limited to the aggregate amount of fees payable for services under the Terms and Conditions between the Consultant and the Client.

The Consultant is independent of the AILA and the AILA will not be liable to the Client or any other person for any act or omission of the Consultant.
